To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that Manika Lamba of the University of Delhi attended the following virtual conference:

iConference 2021 Diversity | Divergence | Dialog

- Held March 17-31, 2021
- Hosted by the Renmin University of China School of Information Resource Management
- Presented by the international iSchools organization

Manika Lamba was accepted into the conference's Doctoral Colloquium with the submission titled Exploratory Text Analysis of Electronic Theses and Dissertations.

iConference 2021 was the 16th conference in our annual series, with more than 500 information scholars, researchers, and professionals taking part. The conference was held online.

You may contact me with any questions about participation.

Kind Regards,
